

EAST meets WEST

“Resilience”

All programs are open to the public and, except as noted, will be held
Tuesdays from 4:30–6:00 p.m. in Todd Hall 276

-
- Sept. 5      Documentary Film: American Revolutionary: The Evolution of Grace Lee Boggs
- Sept. 12     “In Our Own Backyard: Japanese Internment during WWII,” Dr. Katy Fry (History)
- Sept. 19     “Patterns of Resilience: An Aesthetics of Chinese Urban Environments,” Dr. David Wang (Architecture)
- Sept. 26     “Mindfulness: East and West,” Dr. Julia Cassaniti (Anthropology) and Dr. Lydia Gerber (Asian Studies)
- Oct. 3        “Community in a Global Migration Crisis: US-Resettled Burmese and Iraqi Refugees,” Dr. Caitlin Bletscher (Center for Transformational Learning and Leadership)
- Oct. 10      “Building Nationhood in the Post-Soviet Era,” Dr. Marina Tolmacheva (History)
- Oct. 17      “A Taste of Home: Food as a Form of Diasporic Resilience,” Dr. Shawna Herzog (History)
- Oct. 24      CHINA TOWN HALL | 4:00–5:40 p.m.
Interactive Webcast @ 4:00 p.m.
Dr. Susan E. Rice, former National Security Advisor and US Ambassador to the UN
Local Presentation @ 4:45 p.m.
“US–China Relations in the Trump Era: What Is Washington State's China Strategy?” Dr. Mercy Kuo, President and Executive Director of the Washington State China Relations Council, Seattle

Students may sign up for this lecture series as a 1-credit class, ASIA 301 (SLN #05097).

Questions? Contact the WSU Asia Program at asia@wsu.edu or 509-335-7425.